COMPLAINT

On January 10, 2023 I Shaniqua Bryant purchased a vehicle from Best Buy Imports location 6832 Frankford ave. Philadelphia Pennsylvania 19135.

Best Buy Imports violated many regulations in the Federal Trade Commission concerning consumer rights on vehicle purchases. They also forged a check to PENNDOT for fees that I was unaware of causing the vehicle to have no valid registration. I gave them $4000.00 cash down payment. The car has big dent but no accidents were reported to me that day at the dealership. I called the dealership numerous times, the first only 2 days of having vehicle and talked to Steve and told him I was not happy at all about how the car was running and that I had to already put money to get brakes and other things done to car. I also complained to finance company about their deceptive practices once I found out from finance company that this car would cost me almost $28, 000.00, Steve did not tell me nor explain that key point. There was no price on car, I did not pick out car, they simply said that was the car that I qualified for.

Steve who sold me the car was fired for unknown reasons and every time I have called this dealership to get answers I have been hung up on and emails have gone unanswered and when given notice of intent to sue there has been no response.

I am unable to work because is not legally registered, they took my money and did not pay taxes or registration fees and also for lost wages.

I would like to recover damages in the amount of $36,525.00
